CORBETT AWAITS FORFEIT MONEY.

Wants Assurance of Detroit Fight Club Before Beginning Training.

(Special to The Evening World.) CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 20.—"Young Corbett," who has been in the city several days, has decided that he will waste no energy in training until he is certain that he will have something for his efforts. The forfeit money that was to have been posted by the Detroit Club before which Corbett and McGovern will fight not having put in an appearance Corbett has put off the inauguration of his training for the contest and is spending his time at the theatres and other sight-seeing about town. He is located at his prospective training quarters on Price Hill, but has done no actual work.

The place now is being prepared for his use, and with all arrangements completed it will be the most complete temporary gymnasium ever established by any pugilist in training. Nothing will be lacking that will tend to get the youngster in shape for his coming battle, and he has hopes that with his quarters perfectly arranged for work, good trainers and other conditions as good as he should be, he will be in finer form when he meets McGovern than he has been in any of his previous battles.

LITTLE FIGHTERS GET BIG MONEY FOR DOING NOTHING.

If Corbett and Terry Get Detroit Club's Forfeit They Will Have Collected $3,750 Each.

The refusal of Gov. Bliss to permit "Young Corbett" and Terry McGovern meeting in a bout in Detroit will result in the officials of the Metropolitan A. C., of that city, losing $5,000. Matchmaker Billy Considine was so confident that Corbett could hold the content that he posted that amount as a forfeit. As soon as the bout is called off officially the fighters will claim the forfeit and divide $2,500 each. The amount, with the $1,250 Bob Gray gave each of them when he failed to hold the fight, will make $3,750 both "Corbett" and McGovern have received from clubs as forfeit money.

Carter and Gardner Again.

"Kid" Carter, the middle-weight fighter, is matched to fight George Gardner, the middle-weight who in three recent contests defeated Carter. They have been secured by the American A. C., of Chicago, to meet in a six-round bout on Dec. 29.

O'Brien After Carter.

"Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien, the middle-weight boxer, whom "Kid" Carter recently defeated, has been matched to fight Carter in a six-round bout on Dec. 29. Carter is ready to clinch a match on the conditions suggested by Carter. He is willing to bet Carter $1,000 that the latter cannot knock him out in six rounds. If Carter does not want to bet, O'Brien says he will fight Carter a twenty-round bout at $15,000 each. The bout will take place on the afternoon of the contest, and agree that the winner take the entire purse.

Sure Enough, Watts Retires.

As predicted in this column a few days ago, Jim Watts, the colored Southern middle-weight, has retired from the ring after his bout with "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien. O'Brien gave Watts a bad beating in four rounds, during which Watts was knocked down three times. The bout was then stopped. After the bout O'Brien said he could have knocked out Watts in the second round. No one blames Watts for retiring.

PROF. FISHER WON BOUT AGAINST HERRICK.

Polo A. A.'s Instructor Was Only Downed Once in Contest.

The handicap wrestling match between George Fisher, instructor of the Polo A. A., and Prof. Herrick, of the New York A. C., in which Herrick was to throw Fisher three times in an hour, was won by Fisher. Herrick went down after forty minutes of hard wrestling. After the usual ten minutes' rest they went at it again, and try as he might, Herrick could not throw Fisher. Fisher was matched to wrestle a number of Englishmen, some time ago.

ENGLISH GOLFERS MAY COME TO AMERICA.

International Contest May Be Feature of Next Season's Tourneys.

A series of international golf matches will in all probability be decided in this country next year under the auspices of the United States Golf Association. R. H. Robertson, President of the association, says that he has been informed by one of the members of the Oxford-Cambridge Golfing Society that the English club was considering the advisability of sending a team here next year.

GANS STILL HOLDS THE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Howard Wilson Did Not Even Threaten to Win Title During Three Rounds He Boxed.

TERRY'S VACATION AT MOUNT CLEMENS.

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., Dec. 20.—Terry McGovern is having a vacation at Lakeside, dividing his time between a hunting trip and his initial ice yachting experience. The latter form of pleasure appealed to him. Shooting, however, is the boxer's favorite pastime just now.

On Christmas Day Landlord Bingham, of the Lakeside Inn, is planning to have a live-bird shoot and Terry has decided to enter the match. He has begun practice at the Lakeside traps, using clay targets as a starter. Later on he will try his hand at live targets and hopes to be sufficiently successful to furnish the groundwork for a nice pigeon pot. Terry has also begun a course of baths here.

TOY AND MCLELLAND BOUT ENDED IN DRAW.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 20.—The ten-round bout between Jack McClelland, of Pittsburgh, and Eddie Toy, of San Francisco, last night resulted in a draw. McClelland fought Hugh McFadden at St. Louis the night before and only won here a short while before time to enter the ring. Notwithstanding that, he was strong throughout the contest and put up a good fight.

BERNSTEIN AND BRIGGS BOXED 12-ROUND DRAW.

BOSTON, Dec. 20.—Joe Bernstein, the New York feather-weight, and Jimmy Briggs, of Chelsea, Mass., fought a flashing twelve-round bout before the Criterion A. C., of this city, last night, which was declared a draw by Referee Bill Daly. The contest attracted one of the biggest crowds that ever witnessed a fight in this city.

RACING NOTES.

C. T. McMeekin, of the Oakwood Stud, Lexington, Ky., has been offered and has refused $5,000 for his great broodmare, Gallop. The mare is the dam of the good two-year-old named by a dentist in London.

John E. Madden bought at private sale a filly by Royal Hampton, out of Bonnie Dundee II. The price was private. The filly is from the childwick stud and was sent over from England by Sir J. H. M. Madden. She was not included in the list sold at the American Horse Exchange on Thursday night.

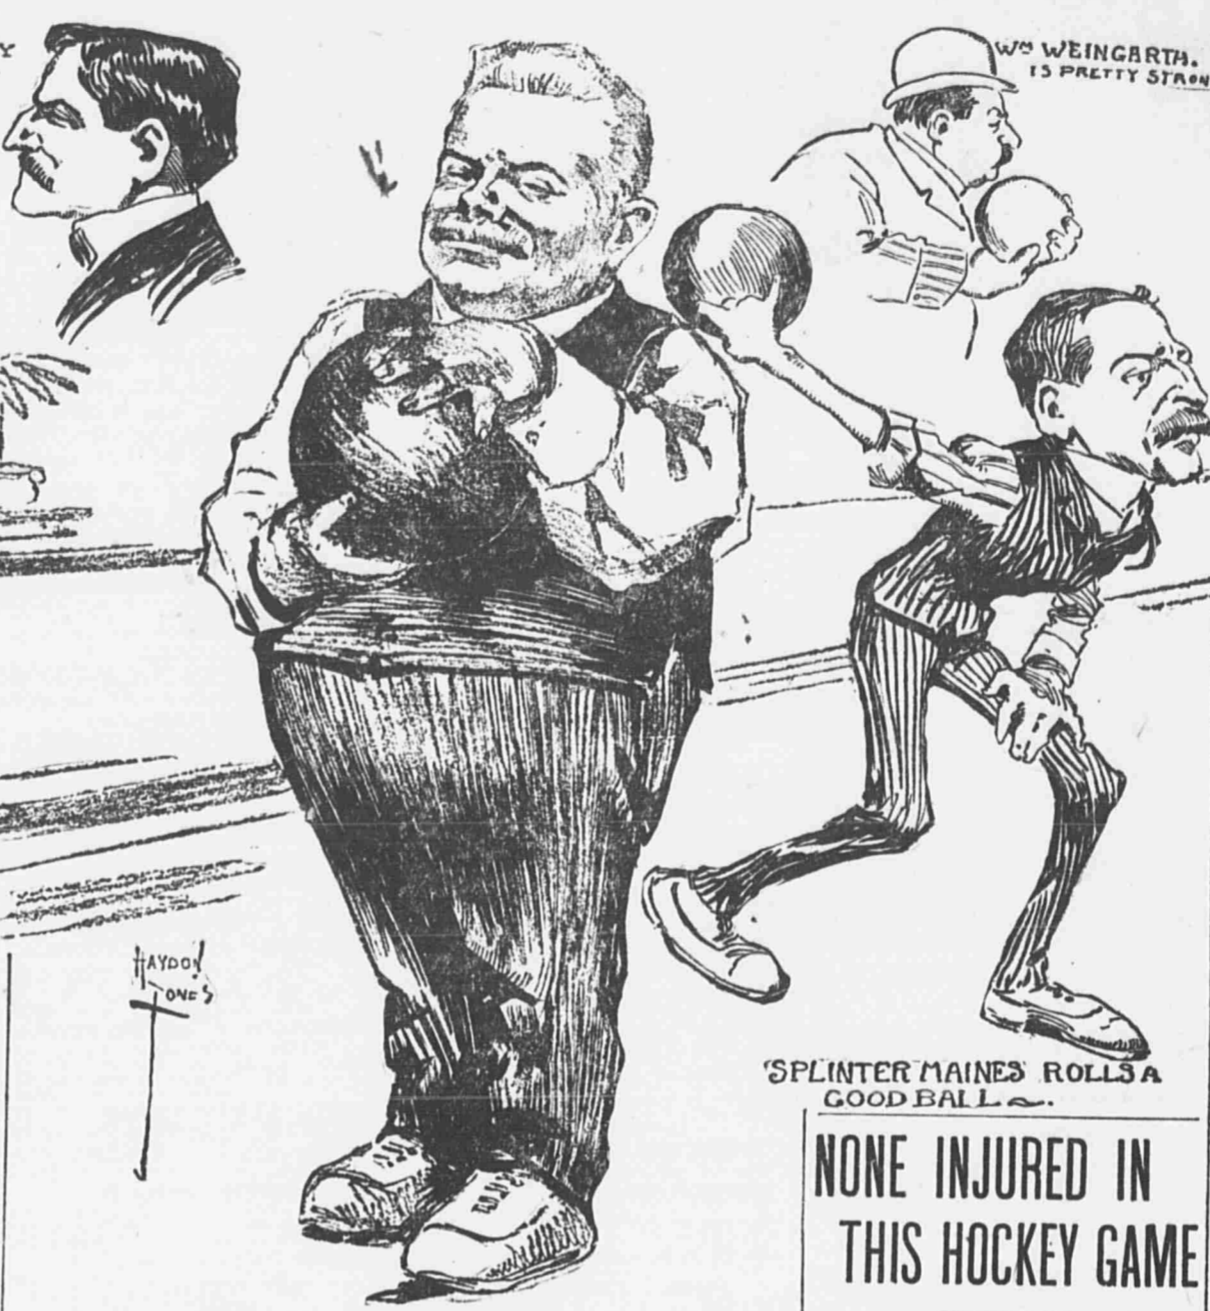

Capt. S. B. Brown is having an addition built to his stable at Sheephead Bay to accommodate some of the two-year-olds purchased by him at the recent sale at the American Horse Exchange.

An operation to remove a splinter of bone from a fractured jaw was performed yesterday upon Jockey W. H. ("Skeets") Martin in his room at the Hotelman House. The jaw was injured by a dentist in London.

L. V. Bell's Alredo, winner of the Suburban of 1901, is to be sent to the Kentucky for shipment to the Williamette farm in Kentucky tomorrow.

W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., Enters Race.

William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., will be a competitor in next year's automobile race between Paris and Madrid. He has notified the officials of the race that he will have a new machine built for the contest and will start France shortly.

UNCLE JOE.

BOWLING RECORDS OF THE SEASON.

Fidelia's Game of 1,092 Pins Tops that of All City Teams So Far.

BOWLING CHAT.

The Columbus Catholic Club team is second in the Archdiocesan League Tournament, still the boys say they haven't struck their yet yet. Jim Garvey, Jim Boyle and Schultz and Fox are only beginning to get their eyes on the pins. Fox continues to "see the moon."

Harry Murray would rather bowl than eat, his friends say. He is one of the best patrons of Gottfried Frank's alleys at No. 753 Tenth avenue.

Hard luck has been the share of the Riverside Council team recently. They are now fourth in the Knights of Columbus tourney, the loss of the last few games pushing them down from second place. The "rosters" and some consolation in the fact that Capt. Clarence Holter and other members of the team are playing away below their real form. "When the brass comes, stand from under," is Jim Anderson's comment.

The team to represent Brooklyn in the $500 match game with Buffalo will be picked from the following players: Seaton, Wolf, Soli, Voorhees, John Ruppel, Buckingham, Smith and Englehart. Fifteen games will be rolled in Buffalo and the other twenty in Brooklyn. The first game will be played in the latter city Jan. 2.

The Syracuse school two surprising games in the American National League. The average was 1,020, and not a man fell below 200. Pretty good golf, eh? say they.

Capt. M. F. Schroeder, of the "Dor" team in the Royal Aramun League, is bowling in the Washington Club they will strike a snag. The National Leaguers are sure not to listen to such a proposition.

San Johnson in a talk about his New York team says Clark Smith, of last year's Chicago team, will manage the Giants' rivals. An effort is to be made to have George Davis, who has already signed with the Giants for next year, to be the first in charge of the Chicago team. That is out of the question.

According to James Foster, the contractor, he has received notice from the American League to begin work on the organization's New York grounds. Where they are he does not say.

The Grace Athletic Club has one of the strongest teams in the field. Among its players are Dock Harvey, Al Letting, Philip Gaust and John Krause. These forwards and guards can hold their own with any in the city.

The Welcome second team is after games with little success, and Manager C. M. Hines, of No. 125 Broadway street, Brooklyn, will arrange with all in the 56-pound class.

William C. Broadhurst has been elected manager, and Carl O'Connell, of the Polytechnic Institute, the players will be as follows: Klingberg, Murphy, Little, McDaniel, Lipson, Fuller and Koshan.

The Brooklyn High School has announced the following schedule for the season: Nov. 20, Commercial; Dec. 2, Pratt Alumni; Dec. 6, Poly Prep; Dec. 11, National A. C.; Dec. 13, Mohican A. C.; Dec. 15, E. D. H. S.; Dec. 20, Adelphi; Dec. 22, Rockaway; Jan. 1, Flatbush; Jan. 5, M. C. A. Park; Jan. 7, Flatbush; Jan. 10, Flatbush; Jan. 14, Newark Academy; Jan. 24, Erasmus; Jan. 25, De La Salle; Jan. 31, Mount Vernon; Feb. 7, Morris H. S.; Jan. 30, De Witt Clinton; Feb. 10, Trenton A. A.; Feb. 22, Second Team Rubber Five.

Capt. Hoenke, of the Adelphi team, has announced their schedule as follows: Dec. 20—Adelphi vs. Boys' High School. Dec. 22—Adelphi vs. Pratt School Seniors. Dec. 24—Adelphi vs. A. A. Alumni. Dec. 26—Adelphi vs. A. A. School. Jan. 10—Adelphi vs. Erasmus. Jan. 17—Adelphi vs. Erasmus. Jan. 24—Adelphi vs. Erasmus. Jan. 31—Adelphi vs. Princeton Second Team. Feb. 14—Adelphi vs. Flatbush High School.

MANY IRISHMEN WILL SEE GAELIC FOOTBALL GAME.

Contest Between Emmets and Kilkennys On for To-morrow.

At Equitable Park to-morrow a game of Gaelic football is scheduled between the Emmets, of Brooklyn, and the Kilkennys, of this city, which the followers of the Irish pastime have been looking forward to for weeks. On account of the bad weather of the past two Sundays the game was postponed, but it is hoped to-morrow will be a fine day. The match has been the main topic of conversation among Irishmen of this city, and lovers of the sport will be well represented at the game.

There will be a hurling match before the football game between the Manhattan, of this city, and the Mahers, which will be called at 1.30 o'clock.

Capt. Hyatt fully expects the team to win the championship again this season and has his team in excellent condition. They have won the only two games played this year.

HARRY BEST THREE-YEAR-OLD AT NEW ORLEANS.

Son of Hindoo Shows Good Qualities as a Racehorse.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 20.—M. H. Tichenor & Company have one of the swiftest three-year-olds shown here this winter in Harry, by Hindoo-La Esmeralda. Harry was one of the highest tried two-year-olds in the Tichenor stable last spring, but the horse was injured about the time Trainer Poole was ready to run him and he had to be thrown out of training.

JENKINS WINS IN BOUT WITH PARR.

Champion Who Will Meet Bothner on Monday Night Meets Tartar in Briton.

BUFFALO, Dec. 20.—Tom Jenkins, the champion catch-as-catch-can wrestler of America, met something of a tartar in the grappling game in Jim Parr, the English champion, whom he wrestled last night. Jenkins won the bout, of course, but not until Parr had pinned the big American's shoulder to the mat once. Parr was clever. During the first bout he exercised great cleverness and succeeded with the use of a trick play in downing Jenkins in seventeen and one-half minutes.

But Jenkins was strong when the second bout began. So was Parr, and for fifty-four minutes the pair grappled hard and furiously. Finally Jenkins toppled Parr over. The bout was fast, and both men underwent great punishment. The third bout found Jenkins the stronger, and after twenty-one and one-half minutes' work, he again downed the Englishman and won the match. After the bout was over Jenkins said that the match showed him how good he would have to be for his bout with George Bothner, the New York wrestler, which will be decided at the Grand Central Palace in New York on Monday night. To throw Bothner four times in an hour is something Tom is not so sure about, although he always declares that he will do as he contracted.

BOTHNER SAYS HE WILL BEAT JENKINS ON MONDAY.

George Bothner, the clever little New York wrestler, who is to meet Tom Jenkins at the Grand Central Palace in a handicap match on Monday night, waited for the returns from the Jenkins and Parr match last night. When he learned that Parr threw Jenkins in the first fall he said that he did not believe that the American champion would do as well as John Piening did against him in their recent bout. Bothner claims he is in better shape for the bout than he ever was in his life and that he has many backers at the ringside who will wager against him. Bothner says Jenkins will not do as he has contracted—throw him four times in an hour.

CYCLISTS FORM ONE BIG UNION.

International Organization Has Secured Membership of Australian Body.

A most powerful cycling organization has been formed in this city. It is to be known as the International Cyclists' Union and will have absolute control of all the wheeling organizations in the world.

The formation of this union was brought about by the application for membership to the National Cycling Association of the Australasian Cycling Council, which includes organizations in control of cycling in the various colonies of Australia. The National Cycling Union of Great Britain, is already in the big organization. With the enrolment of the Australasian Cycling Union, the body the victory of the International Cyclists' Union was complete. The annual meeting of the Union will be held in Paris in March.

BASKET-BALL NOTES.

The Keystone basketball team has announced the following team for the season: John Rauscher, left guard; J. A. Adams, right guard; Fred Hoffman, Ernest Hoffman, Frank Hoffman, John O'Keefe, centre. H. J. Beckman is manager of the team and has arranged an excellent schedule for the season.
